Philosophical Biography

Mrs. Ervin recalls learning the verse "Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6 and saw that modeled by her parents as they made sacrifices to send each child to a Christian school, including University.

Mrs. Ervin is feels called to teach in a Christian school by Ephesians 4:11-13 "So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ." She desires to equip the children of believers who are the students who fill her classroom for Kingdom service and help them mature spiritually so they are ready to confront the world around them with God's truth as they seek to follow His will. She is honored to come alongside families as they choose Christian education to equip their children to better serve the Lord, not just while they live at home, but long after they leave home and begin their own families and careers.

Mrs. Ervin is glad for the opportunity to teach science in a school where she can incorporate awe and amazement at what God has so wisely made. Demonstrating how God's wisdom greatly surpasses our own and He is worthy of our worship.
