

Professional Biography

Erin Chaney graduated from the University of Arizona's College of Education in 2000 with a degree in Spanish. From 2002 to 2021, she served as the pastor's wife at All Saints Presbyterian Church in Boise, Idaho, taking on a variety of roles such as Sunday School Teacher and Coordinator, Nursery Coordinator, Youth Ministry Coordinator, Bible Study Leader, and Small Group Hostess. In 2019, Erin began working for Samaritan Senior Care to provide care for seniors during the pandemic, a role she held until moving to Phoenix in 2021. That same year, she and her husband began planting a church in South Scottsdale. Erin also worked as a classroom aide for Mentor Kids in the Paiute neighborhood before joining Phoenix Christian PreK-8 as a Spanish teacher in 2023.

Personal Biography

A Phoenician since early childhood, Erin met her husband Brad during her first year of college at a Campus Crusade for Christ meeting. They married in 1997 and welcomed their first daughter in Phoenix before moving to Mississippi for Brad's seminary studies. During their time there, Erin gave birth to two more daughters. Their journey then led them to Boise, Idaho, where Brad pastored All Saints Presbyterian Church, and where their son and youngest daughter were born. After 19 years in Boise, the family returned to Phoenix in 2021 to start Reconciled Church.

Philosophical Biography

Erin's life is deeply rooted in her Christian faith. She believes that because of the love God has shown us through Jesus, we are called to "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:37). Furthermore, she embraces the mission to "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19), which serves as the foundation of how she approaches her life and ministry.
