

Professional Biography

Ms. Bjelic (AKA Ms. B) graduated with a bachelor's degree in Design Management and a minor in International Business from Arizona State University. In 2017, she earned her master's in Elementary Education from Grand Canyon University. Ms. B started teaching in 2015. She has taught both locally in Phoenix and internationally in Kuwait and Dubai, UAE. Ms. B has a strong background in working with English as a Second Language (ESL) students.

Personal Biography

Ms. B was born and raised in Phoenix, where she attended Madison Simis Elementary School, Madison Meadows School and Xavier College Preparatory for high school. A true Arizona native, Ms. B loves the warm weather and enjoys spending time outdoors, especially swimming. In her free time, she loves reading, doing Pilates, and spending time with family and friends.

Philosophical Biography:

Ms. B approaches her role as a teacher with a heart grounded in her Christian faith. She believes in the wisdom of Proverbs 22:6: "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it." This guiding principle shapes her approach to teaching, as she views education as a sacred responsibility to nurture each student's unique gifts and guide them on a path of growth and integrity.

Ms. B strives to cultivate not just academic success, but also character and faith in her students to maintain consistency between church, home and at school. Ms B is committed to creating a classroom environment that reflects compassion, discipline, and a love for learning, rooted in Christian faith.